

About Access Arts

Access Arts is a non-profit, 501(c)3 charitable educational organization, incorporated in 1971. Open to all ages, accessible to a range of abilities, and economic circumstance, our mission is to provide creative learning experiences for everyone. Missouri Arts Council, the City of Columbia Office of Cultural Affairs, various foundations, civic organizations and individual contributions supplement program funding, making it possible to offer scholarships to students in financial need.

Registration & Scholarships

To register, please complete a registration form and return to the office along with payment, or register and pay online! You also can see class descriptions and instructor bios at schoolofservice.org

To apply for a scholarship, please contact our office for a scholarship application. Scholarship applications must be turned in by July 2, 2018 to be considered.

PLEASE NOTE:: the registration deadline is July 2, 2018 and a minimum $30 deposit is required to reserve your place in class. Deposits are non-refundable unless class is cancelled by Access Arts. There will be a $10 late fee for all late registrations.

Adaptive Classes

Here at Access Arts, we encourage an integrated learning environment. Any class we offer can be adapted to accommodate students with special needs. If you receive services from Boone County Family Resources, you may wish to contact your Support Coordinator to see if an Access Arts class can be included in your Individual Plan as a Therapeutic Recreation service.
